

FEDLINK Fall Exposition 2018

Optimizing Federal Libraries through Partnerships

Wednesday, November 7, 2018 | 9:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.

Onsite: Montpelier Room, Madison Building, Library of Congress | Online: Via WebEx Conference

Recent conversations with members and customer surveys asked for a program on working with FEDLINK. To respond, FEDLINK is offering a two-part expo with morning sessions featuring how to use FEDLINK and afternoon sessions featuring specialized topics for federal librarians.

The morning session will feature updates and details on

- ◆ Licensing
- ◆ Books, Information Retrieval, Serials, Preservation and Digitization
- ◆ Establishing and Maintaining a FEDLINK Account
- ◆ Working with FEDLINK Vendors.

As part of the FEDLINK Vendor Exhibit, company representatives will give updates on their products and services and have exhibit tables for specific questions and answers throughout the day.

The afternoon begins with the Joint FEDLINK Advisory Board and FEDLINK Membership meeting featuring updates from FEDLINK workings groups, details on applying for the upcoming FEDLINK Awards Nominations, and planned system changes for FEDLINK's Assisted Acquisition services.

Afternoon breakout sessions will then offer discussions of

- ◆ Fair Use in the Digital Age
- ◆ Researching American Indian Records at the National Archives
- ◆ Defining the FEDLINK Customer Experience
- ◆ Establishing Trust: Digital Repository Assessment
