

Primary Secondary Source Sort

Goal	Participants will be able to justify their conclusions about whether a source is primary or secondary depending upon the time or topic under study.
Objectives	Participants will: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Identify factors that determine whether a source is primary or secondary</li><li>• Apply a definition of a primary source to a selection of sources</li></ul>

Preparation	Print and compile one set of the above items for each group of three to five participants.
Procedure	<ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. Explain to participants that they will be examining printed versions of digitized items from the Library of Congress Web site. Explain that for the purpose of this activity, it is appropriate to use digitized items as primary sources.</li><li>2. Distribute a set of the 10 items to each group. Ask participants to sort the materials into two piles - primary sources and secondary sources. They should be able to justify to each other why an item should be in one pile or another. Give groups five</li></ol> minutes to work without further instruction. [Note: If questions arise, have participants jot them down to discuss later.]

3. Ask participants if there are items about which they are uncertain. Suggest they create a third pile for the uncertain items. Point out the creation date in the footer of each item. Give participants another five minutes to continue sorting and discussing.
4. When all groups have finished, ask each group to select one item from the “uncertain” pile and choose a spokesperson to explain why the item was difficult to classify. Discuss.
5. Ask participants if it would be helpful to have a definition for “primary source.” Display or read the following definition of a primary source:
Primary sources are the raw materials of history — original documents and objects that were created at the time under study. They are different from secondary sources, accounts that retell, analyze, or interpret events, usually at a distance of time or place.
Discuss. Emphasize to participants that a source might be primary or secondary, depending upon the time or topic under study.
6. Give groups time to examine their piles again with the Library’s definition in mind, and decide whether and how their thinking about primary and secondary sources has changed. Discuss.
7. Direct groups to find The wedding of Pocahontas with John Rolfe. Ask them to imagine their students are studying colonial history around the time of Jamestown. Ask them to discuss in their groups whether they would classify this item as primary or secondary. Have each group report its decision.
Note: in this situation, the item is considered a secondary source because it was created long after the time under study.
8. Tell participants to imagine their students are studying 19th century attitudes about the relationships between early colonists and Native Americans, and discuss whether they would classify The wedding of Pocahontas with John Rolfe as a primary source or a secondary source. Have each group report its findings.
Note: in this situation, the item is considered a primary source because it was created at the time under study.
9. Direct groups to find Dewey in the Civil War. Ask, “In what situation would this be considered a primary source?” [e.g., primary if studying textbooks of the early 1900s] Ask, “In what situation would this be considered a secondary source?” [e.g., secondary if studying Admiral Dewey]

10. Repeat step 9 with Columbus taking possession [e.g., primary if studying 18th century painting or 18th century views about Columbus; secondary if studying Columbus]
11. Ask participants in small groups to list factors that determine if a source is primary or secondary.
12. Discuss the following: Why is it important for you as the teacher to know whether a particular source is primary or secondary? Why is it important for students to know?

Participant Discussion

Prompt participants to discuss in small or large groups: When and why would you use primary sources with your students? When and why would you use secondary sources with them?

Old Booker T.

Was a practical man.

He said, Till the soil,

and Learn from the land.

Let down your buckets

Where you are:

In your own backyard

~~Could~~ There could

~~Might~~ be a star.

Train you ~~heart~~, head,

Your ~~head~~, heart, and your hand.

To help yourself

And your fellowman

Thus Booker T.

Built a school,

With book-learning there

And the workman's tool.

He started out

In a simple way---

For ~~X~~Yesterday

Was not today.)

Sometimes he had com-

~~Compromise~~ in his talk---

For a man must crawl

Before he can walk

And in Alabama in '85

A joker was lucky

To ~~stay~~ <sup>be</sup> alive.

But ~~not~~ Booker T.

Was nobody's fool:

You may carve a dream

From an humble tool---

And the tallest tower

Can tumble down

If ~~is~~ <sup>it be</sup> not rooted

In solid ground.

He said, Train your head, ~~heart~~,

Your head, and your hand

For ~~to~~ <sup>needs</sup> smart alone

Is ~~not~~ <sup>surely</sup> meet---

If ~~you~~ <sup>and</sup> ~~also~~ <sup>got</sup>

~~Men~~/you haven't ~~got~~ /Something to eat.

~~Train your humble~~
heart
Your head, and your hand--

For Booker T.

Was a practical man.

Introduction

Jane Addams (1860-1935) was a groundbreaking social reformer, peace activist, and co-winner of the 1931 Nobel Peace Prize. A graduate of Rockford Female Seminary in Illinois, Addams traveled to London in 1888 and drew inspiration from Toynbee Hall, a settlement house that provided services to the indigent. In 1889, Addams founded one of the first settlement houses in the United States, Hull House in Chicago, that provided educational workshops and social services to thousands of the city's poor, including immigrants.

Addams was a tireless advocate for the rights of women, people of color, and children. Addams was an officer in the National American Women's Suffrage Association, one of the founders of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, and a founding member of the National Child Labor Committee.

An ardent pacifist, Addams co-founded the Women's Peace Party in 1915 and served as the president of the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom. Addams was a vocal anti-war advocate during World War I and was eventually awarded the Nobel Peace Prize in 1931 for her years of activism.

COLUMBUS TAKING POSSESSION OF THE NEW COUNTRY.

The voyage had lasted 70 days (35 of which being lost by delay at the Canary Islands), from August 3 to October 12, 1492, when Columbus landed on the island called Guanahani by the natives, and named by him San Salvador. This island was rediscovered by the English, and by them called Watling Island. Columbus took possession of the land in the name of Our Lord Jesus Christ, for the crown of Castile.

THOUSANDS DEAD AT SAN FRANCISCO; MILIONS GONE IN FIRES STILL RAGING

CITY WAS TOSSED LIKE A FEATHER AS SHOCK CAME

Great Buildings Rose
Into the Air, Then Collapsed.

EARTH SEEMED TO SINK

Walls Rocked and Wobbled Like Frail Things in a Storm.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., April 18.—A long and heavy shock, which began to shake the city at 5:13 o'clock this morning, was the first of a series of shocks which have been felt here since the earthquake of 1906. The shocks were so severe that the city seemed to sink for a moment and then the buildings to rise in the air as if on a balloon. Then there was a sort of sinking, the like of which no mortal ever experienced a second time. Then the buildings rose and fell like a feather in a storm, and the people who were in the streets at the time of the shock were thrown into the air and fell like so many dolls.

WASHINGTON FELT SERIOUS SHOCKS FOR FOUR HOURS

Most Severe Earthquake
Recorded Here in Many Years.

For nearly four hours this forenoon Washington felt the tremble of an earthquake, the most severe that has been recorded here in many years. The shocks were so severe that the city seemed to sink for a moment and then the buildings to rise in the air as if on a balloon. Then there was a sort of sinking, the like of which no mortal ever experienced a second time. Then the buildings rose and fell like a feather in a storm, and the people who were in the streets at the time of the shock were thrown into the air and fell like so many dolls.

WIDE DEVASTATION AND LOSS OF LIFE CORROBORATED

War Department's Wire
Estimates 1,000 Lives
Sacrificed.

The War Department established communication with San Francisco, after strenuous efforts, about 11 o'clock this morning. Chief Operator Pearson, at the telegraph station, advised that the shock fairly well, only a few of them being destroyed or badly damaged. Great havoc was wrought among the other buildings.

buildings still standing threatened by fire.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 18.—San Francisco was visited by a violent earthquake at 5:13 this morning. Scores of business blocks and residences were destroyed. Many persons were killed.

Fires have broken out all over the city, and people are terror stricken. All persons are being ordered to leave the city. Men and women, children from their beds, ran here and there, pleading to be taken to missing friends.

Over Ten Blocks Burned.

Over a dozen blocks of dwellings and business property have been destroyed by fire.

The editorial rooms of the Call have given way to the flames and the Examiner building looks as though it will soon be destroyed. The offices of the United States and the Hearst papers have been destroyed.

Every street in the city is littered with bricks, stone, and iron framework of fallen structures. City Hall and Majestic Theater are in ruins.

The towers of the City Hall were destroyed and the wing containing the Emergency Hospital collapsed.

Express men are hauling dying men and women through the city streets in their wagons, calling out names and asking for relatives.

Buildings along upper Market street and western addition seem to have escaped the full force of destruction. All high buildings and tall buildings of the new portion of the city still stand.

City Under Cloud of Smoke.

Fires are increasing in number and size. Under a cloud of dense smoke it is reported that the water supply has been cut off in the city.

Many Killed by Dead.

The city morgue and adjacent buildings are now filled with dead. Every body in the city is dotted with wounds, twisted, are leaving all hotels and rushing for outgoing trains. Their baggage litter the sidewalks. No

Blackburn's Counsel Scores a Big Point

Important Witness Testifies That Congressman Represented Him in Case, But Refused to Accept the Fee Offered.

GREENSBORO, N. C., April 18.—The second day of the trial of E. Spencer Blackburn, representative of the Fifth North Carolina Congressional District, who is charged with having violated section 172 of the Revised Statutes by practicing before the departments at Washington, was begun at 9:30 this morning, before United States Circuit Judge Nathan Goff.

Immediately after the case was called, former Judge W. P. Dymally, of counsel for the defense, filed an exception to the ruling of the court in the damages award throughout the defense.

This testimony was damaging to the defense, as one of the counts in the indictment against the Congressman was founded upon the alleged payment of a fee by Blackburn.

MERCER AND GASKINS

John Richard Mercer and James Henry Gaskins, who were tried in Criminal Court No. 4 for murder in the second degree, were today found guilty of manslaughter by a jury of 12 men.
